Account Manager

Lærke Ehlers is Account Manager at TS NoCode ApS, working to increase our partner and customer base, while building stronger and deeper relationships with existing stakeholders for mutual benefit. She is responsible for customer acquisition across multiple industries and work with customers both in Denmark and internationally.

Lærke has a strong background in sales both B2C and B2B. With extensive solution selling experience, pipeline management, participation in strategy development and execution from IKEA and Vordingborg Køkkenet, she brings firm needs clarification and relationship management skills to the table. Lærke has a Master's Degree in International Leadership and Management from Copenhagen Business School, and a pronounced ability to translate theory into practice. Hence, she will be able to help customers accelerate their paths toward digital business and/or extend and consolidate existing transformation initiatives.
